

Electoral regulations of Association PopKulturOst e.V.

§ 1 General

1.
The election regulations are not part of the statutes.
2.
These election regulations apply to the election of those specified in the association's statutes
Board members (Section 10 Paragraph 4) and the auditor (Section 15 Paragraph 3).

§ 2 Returning officer/election worker

1.
The general meeting appoints a returning officer by a simple majority. The duties of the returning officer are regulated below.
2.
Returning officers and election workers are not allowed to run for office themselves.

§ 3 Naming of candidates

1.
The general meeting proposes candidates. The candidates must Meet the requirements of § 13.1 paragraph 2.
2.
Eligible persons can also apply for office themselves by submitting a corresponding declaration to the returning officer.
3.
The returning officer asks the proposed candidates for their consent and determines their candidacy or rejection of their candidacy.

§ 4 Election by show of hands

- 1.

Consequently

Voting takes place by show of hands. This applies to both the choice of Board of Directors as well as the auditor.

§ 5 Voting

1.

The returning officer presents the names of the candidates and specifies the number members entitled to vote and encourages them to vote by show of hands.

2.

The returning officer enters the result of the vote in a protocol.

3.

After the votes have been counted, the returning officer announces the voting results.

4.

The returning officer asks the elected candidate whether he or she accepts the election.

5.

This ends the election.

§ 6 Validity of election, contestation

1.

The term of office of a board member or an auditor begins with his declaration of acceptance of the office.

2.

If a ballot cannot be completed or cannot be validly completed, or will
If the ballot is subsequently declared invalid, the remaining ones remain valid
Election processes are unaffected.

3.

The election or a ballot can be canceled with reference to a violation of valid
Right, against the association's statutes or against these electoral regulations become.

Every club member is entitled to challenge.

The challenge to the oral election date or subsequently is possible by means of a registered letter to the returning officer or the association.

The letter of challenge must contain the reason for the challenge and the Returning officer or the association with one month's notice, calculated from Dispatch of the election protocol.

After that, the challenge is excluded.

The deadline for contesting does not need to be specifically stated.

The returning officer decides on the challenge, without prejudice to a decision before a regular court or arbitration tribunal.

If the above regulations inadmissibly violate the law
Restrict regulations, the latter apply.

The election regulations were decided at the general meeting on September 27th, 2023 in Berlin.